I am a sing - er— I'm a mer - ry sing - er, Sing - ing for you!

Allegro.

D.S. or D.C. ad lib.

4 When the sands of Jersey
Glisten in the light,
When the staid old Keystone
Bids adieu to night ;
Then you're sure to find me,
Singing all day long,
Till the very Quakers
Help the merry song.

5 On the Sandwich Islands,
If the towns you scan,
Where it takes but little
Cloth to clothe a man ;
Even there you'll see me,
Hear my merry lay,
As the dusky maidens
Round about me play.

6 When the towns of Sydney,
Adelaide and Perth,
(Not omitting Melbourne )
View the morning's birth ;
Back to me returning,
Like their boomerang,
Come the folks to encore
What last eve I sang.

7 Out in distant China,
Borneo, Japan ;
Africa, where natives
Eat their fellow man ;
Where the warlike Zulus
Dress but to the knee,
There you'll find me singing,
Sure as fate's decree.
